

Forward-looking Statements

This report contains certain forward-looking information and forward-looking statements as defined in applicable securities laws (collectively referred to in this Earnings Release as “forward-looking statements”). All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. The words “believe,” “will,” “may,” “may have,” “would,” “estimate,” “continues,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “expects,” “budget,” “scheduled,” “forecasts” and similar words are intended to identify estimates and forward looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of NEXA to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include estimates, forecasts, and statements as to management’s expectations with respect to the business and operations of the Company and mining production our growth strategy, the impact of applicable laws and regulations, future zinc and other metal prices, smelting sales, capex, expenses related to exploration and project development, estimation of mineral reserves and resources, mine life and our financial liquidity.

Forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon a number of factors and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by management, are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies. Statements concerning future production costs or volumes are based on numerous assumptions of management regarding operating matters and on assumptions that demand for products develops as anticipated, that customers and other counterparties perform their contractual obligations, that operating and capital plans will not be disrupted by issues such as mechanical failure, unavailability of parts and supplies, labor disturbances, interruption in transportation or utilities, adverse weather conditions, and that there are no material unanticipated variations in the cost of energy or supplies, among other assumptions.

We assume no obligation to update forward-looking statements except as required under securities laws. Further information concerning risks and uncertainties associated with these forward-looking statements and our business can be found in our public disclosures filed under our profile on Sedar (www.sedar.com) and on Edgar (www.sec.gov).

About the Cover

The cover image was created from a photo of our mining engineer at the Vazante unit, Thaís Janine, who works as a geotechnical engineer in the facility's ground control operations.

Thais initiated her professional career with Nexa in 2018 as a Mine Development intern, soon hired as a mining operations engineer. She currently is involved in mine geotechnics, seeking to progress her continued professional growth.

“Being at Nexa made it possible for me to combine all my academic experiences with practice, in a mine that is a school for any professional. As a woman in the field of underground mining, an environment until recently dominated by men, Nexa has strengthened me professionally. Nexa trained me to be the professional that I am today, and I am immensely proud to a part of the Nexa team.”

We are proud to have Thais with us, as well as many other women, growing and making their mark on Nexa.
